Mahomedans.—It is said that there is on the Island of Trinidad, a congregation of Mahomedans, with a priest named Samba Mokumba, who wears the habits of his order, and speaks several languages. These people, teacher and all, were taken in war, and sold into slavery. Samba earned money, and purchased his freedom. He then abode with his people, and continued to instruct them in the faith of Mahomet.

Store Breaking.—The jewelry store of Mr. Regally in Boston was entered on Monday night, between twelve and one o'clock, by means of false keys, and an unsuccessful attempt made to force the lock of the safe with gun-powder! The safe withstood the shock, but the explosion was so great in the room as to force the entire window out, and do other damage to the huilding and property, which, will not probably exceed $1,000.

Ice Trade.—Fifty-five thousand tons of ice were shipped from Boston.
